Information about membership fees

- According to § 6 of the ASCOLA Charter the annual membership fees amount to € 100. Members accepted after July 1st will pay a reduced membership fee of € 50. The annual fees are due on the 1st of January each year or, in the case of a new member, on the first day of the month following admission to the Society.

- Bank account information:

Holder of the account:	Wissenschaftliche Gesellschaft für Kartellrecht (ASCOLA)
Name of the bank:	Stadtsparkasse München
For payment within Germany:	Nr. 458406; BLZ 701 500 00
From other EU countries:	IBAN: DE 48 7015 0000 0000 4584 06 SWIFT-Code: SSKM DE MM

- Membership fees for junior members and members from low-income countries:
  - The annual membership fees for junior members are € 50.
  - The annual membership fees for ordinary members from low-income countries are € 100. The Treasurer will however inform them about the possibility of a fee-reduction, according to the following criteria: Members who monthly do not earn more than € 2000 after taxes will pay € 50; members whose monthly income is less than € 1000 after taxes will pay € 25. In exceptional cases, the Chair of the Executive Board is authorized to waive the annual fee.

- For German and other European members, the easiest way to pay is by regular bank transfer. As to non-European members, we are currently trying to find out a cheap way to pay by credit card from overseas. We will give you more information, as soon as we know more details about the method of payment.